

Mencap Monthly

April 2022

An Update:

Hello Everyone,

April has flown by but work placements have been in full force. We have had excellent employer feedback and lovely on the job photos taken of our students by our job coaches.

We have had Easter Holidays this month, so although there have not been many sessions, you have all done so well with keeping up with your work routines and attendance has been fantastic.

You should all be so proud of yourselves.

I am glad to be presenting you April 2022 Mencap Monthly, I hope you all enjoy the read.

Five Bells - Greene King Ashkan

Ashkan has been working at The Five Bells since February. He works every Tuesday 12pm-4pm.

Ashkan's main tasks at The Five Bells include:
Greeting customers
Cleaning tables
Taking food and drink to customers
Organising menus

Ashkan enjoying his pub lunch on his lunch break, fueling himself for a long shift!

Grace House Care Home

Ashkan and Reagan

Ashkan and Reagan are working hard together in the gardens of the care home, team work makes the dream work!

Ashkan and Reagan's main tasks include:
Managing the recycling
Tend to the gardens and pavilion
Speak to the residents
Help out with the art classes

Reagan and Ashkan have been invited to the Jubilee Garden Party at The Care Home on Sunday 5th June.
Have a great time both!

Papa Johns

Aamir

Aamir has continued to work hard at Papa Johns and build up his independence. Aamir is now working for part of his shift without his job coach, well done Aamir!

Aamir is now doing the pizza toppings for orders that are coming in and checking the temperature of the stock

Aamir has become more familiar with the health and safety requirements of the role at Papa Johns and is engaging well with his colleagues.

Flower Station

Cameron

Cameron is working incredibly hard every Monday and Wednesday at The Flower Station

His tasks include:

Sweeping the leaves

Cleaning the tables

Deadheading the leaves

Putting the leaves in the bin

Cameron has started to become a lot more confident with the customers at The Flower Station and helps wherever he can!

Waitrose

Amy

Amy has started her new work placement at Waitrose this month and is loving it! She is working every Wednesday and Thursday 12pm-3pm

Some of Amy's tasks include:
Facing up products in the whole store
Putting out ambient deliveries
Putting out the fresh deliveries
Stacking the shelves

Amy takes pride in signing herself in and out of her shifts.
She is wearing her uniform and staff headset with pride!

Keep up the good work, Amy!

The Hendon - Greene King

Dahria

Dahria and The Hendon Pub manager Edward working behind the bar on their shift together

Dahria has increased her job task list and is now pouring drinks for customers, trying to get the perfect head on a pint!

Dahria makes sure all of the tables are clean for customers to sit down and enjoy their food and drinks
